Inquiry Learning: The Leprechaun Contraption Project

Wednesday's Project Work

Keep designing your Leprechaun contraption.

School Skills: a Dragonflies activity the Grasshoppers are welcome to try

Word searches help children practice visual discrimination and letter recognition. Pre-readers can explore the letters on their own and circle any letters they would like, or circle their favorite letter as many times as they can find it. Beginning readers can be shown the word list at the bottom. You can explain the strategy of choosing just one of the words to look for first, and searching for the first letter of that word, then "around in a circle." Your child does not need to find all the words!
